Witmart.com is offering a new opportunity for small businesses to be guaranteed a certain number of designers submitting a design for their unique logo design needs. Called the Witmart-Assurance Contest, for no additional fee, employers can be assured they will receive at least 35 designers working on their logo based on the reward of their logo design job. At present, Witmart is the only crowdsourcing site that offers this guarantee to businesses and individuals alike.

“ We feel strongly that employers will be overjoyed by the number of designs received through this guarantee. We are continuing to receive positive feedback ”

As an employer goes through the logo design process, an opportunity to ensure the number of designers working on their logo is given via a checkbox. If selected, employers will receive a certain number of different designers working on their logo. The number of designers depends on the logo design package purchased. The Value package costing $199 will ensure the employer a minimum of 35 designers. A Standard package costing $349 will ensure the employer 50 designers or more, while the Professional package retailing at $549 will guarantee the employer receives at least 65 designers.

Guaranteeing a minimum number of designers has had a positive impact on Witmart clients.

“We feel strongly that employers will be overjoyed by the number of designs received through this guarantee. We are continuing to receive positive feedback,” says Witmart CEO. “The goal is to ensure our clients receive a minimum number of designs to share with their partners to help make a decision that is right for their organization.”

A one-stop shop for all professional service needs, Witmart gives each employer the option of enabling the Witmart-Assurance during the job posting process. There is no additional fee when choosing this option; however, employers will not be able to request a refund for the job unless Witmart fails to ensure the number of designers as promised.
