“ Our employers are our number one priority, and our mission is to exceed the expectations of our customers. ”

Many small businesses starting anew are looking for ways to set themselves apart from the competition through the creation of a logo. A well-thought out logo becomes the cornerstone of their business, establishing style, impact and credibility to the organization from day one. From years of experience and knowledge in the workplace, Witmart employs individual freelancers who understand the importance of logo branding and aim to distribute an encouraging brand message to outsiders, helping businesses quickly rise above their competition. A logo that conveys trust and responsibility will win out when it's time to for a customer to show loyalty towards a business.

According to Richard, CEO of Witmart.com, "Our employers are our number one priority, and our mission is to exceed the expectations of our customers." Regarding Witmart's commitment to providing the best logo, he adds, "We understand the importance of what a well designed logo can help represent for a company trying to get their business off the ground, thus we want to be there every step of the way to make sure they get a logo they can get excited about. Getting their business off to a good start is not only a priority of theirs, but a priority of ours as well. Our one-on-one assistance for every customer speaks for itself."

Witmart's large talent pool ensures employers will have their pick of a logo that will help them lay the foundation for their branding efforts. By posting a job on Witmart.com, service providers become aware of the posted project, bid accordingly, and fulfill the employer's needs as directed. Employers can choose from the most efficient providers based on employer feedback, recent transactions and skill levels. Budget-minded employers can post logo design contests for as little as $99, getting extreme value at a price that is lower than competitor's packages yet still provides outstanding end results. Providers go through Identify Verification via phone or email, giving them more trust in the eyes of employers. Additionally, employers can bid safely and confidently knowing there is a 100% money back guarantee when bids don't meet expectations set at the start of the job.
